I. ORGANIZATIONAL AND METHODOLOGICAL SECTION

The purpose of studying the discipline: The purpose of teaching the discipline "Fundamentals of Russian Statehood" is to form in students a system of knowledge, skills and competencies, as well as values, rules and norms of behavior associated with the awareness of belonging to Russian society, the development of a sense of patriotism and citizenship, the formation of a spiritual, moral and cultural foundation for a developed and integral personality, aware of the peculiarities of the historical path of the Russian state, the originality of its political organization and the combination of individual dignity and success with social progress and political stability of their homeland.

Objectives of studying the discipline:

- to show Russia as a state-civilization in its continuous development, to reflect its most significant features, principles and current guidelines;
- to reveal the value-behavioral content of the sense of citizenship and patriotism, inseparable from developed critical thinking, free development of the individual and the ability to independently judge the current political and cultural context;
- to consider the fundamental achievements, inventions, discoveries and accomplishments associated with the development of the Russian land and Russian civilization, to present them in a relevant and significant perspective that fosters in citizens pride and involvement in their culture and their people;
- to present the key meanings, ethical and ideological doctrines that have developed within the Russian civilization and reflect its multinational, multi-confessional and solidarity (community) character;
- to consider the features of the modern political organization of Russian society, the causal nature and specificity of its current transformation, the value support of traditional institutional decisions and the special polyvariance of the relationship between the Russian state and society in the federal dimension;
- to explore the most probable external and internal challenges facing the Russian civilization and its statehood at the present moment, to outline the key scenarios for its future development;
- to outline the fundamental value principles (constants) of the Russian civilization (unity of diversity, strength and responsibility, harmony and cooperation, love and trust, creation and development), as well as the interconnected value guidelines of the Russian civilizational development.
